- Creative Capital Professional Development weekend workshop at Penland, October

Met wonderful people from CC, international artists and business people, and artists taking the course. Colleen Keegan started the workshop Friday evening by saying that artists could achieve more by working less hours. Good news! Thanks also to Beverly McIver, Sue Johnson, Aaron Landsman, Dread Scott and Jackie Battenfield for inspiration and great sessions.

- Inmate art show

The exhibition of work by my students at the Correctional Institute has finally finished its run – at UNCA in the summer and AB Tech in the fall. Now the work will be heading back to Spruce Pine where they may or may not have an exhibition within the prison itself.
